The Organization of Wildlife Planners (OWP), an affiliate of the Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies (AFWA), is announcing a call for nominations for the Annual Paul C. Weikel Memorial Award. This award is the most prestigious honor of the OWP and it is presented annually to a person who makes significant contributions towards the improvement of Fish and Wildlife agency management.

The following are the criteria for nominations:

Innovation: Contribution toward improvement or refinement of improved organizational management.

Effectiveness: Impact or benefits toward improved organizational management.

Transferability: Potential application to other areas of organizational management.

Implementation: Effectiveness in achieving intended change.

Comprehensiveness: Application of planning/organizational management principles taking into account the effects on the resource and publics the agency serves.

The nomination package should consist of a brief cover letter describing the individual's achievement/contribution which qualifies him/her for the award; a one page outline on how the entry addresses each criterion for judging, and support documentation of the achievement and/or contribution. Current members of the OWP Executive Committee are not eligible to receive the award.

The nomination package should be submitted by June 30, 2010 to:

Dana Dolsen
Utah Division of Wildlife Resources
PO Box 146301
